

2010 – 2011 UCSD CURRICULAR SUMMARY

We have published the 2010-2011 major-prep articulation agreements on ASSIST for all 112 community colleges. The following are major and curriculum changes in the ASSIST articulation agreements for the 2010-2011 academic year.

UCSD Curriculum Changes:

CSE 70 – Removed from Curriculum

CSE 91 – Perspectives in Computer and Engineering – 2 Quarter Units

ECE 15 – Engineering Computation – Course must be taken at UCSD

The following had course title/number changes:

Chinese Studies 10 A-B-C and 20 A-B-C

Chem 6BL now Chem 7L (Number change only)

LTEN 25 & LTEN 26

LTWR 8 A-B-C

New Courses for Fall 2010:

LTIT 1D – Italian Conversation – 2.5 Quarter Units

LTIT 1DX – Analysis of Italian – 2.5 Quarter Units

NANO 1 NanoEngineering Seminar – Course must be taken at UCSD

Major Name Change:

MAE: Chemical Engineering is now NANO: Chemical Engineering (In alpha order on assist.org under NANO)*

The following Mathematics Majors are now a B.S. Degree:

Applied Mathematics

Joint Major in Mathematics and Economics

Mathematics/Computer Science

Mathematics

New Major/Department:

NANO – NanoEngineering B.S.

History Department

The History department re-evaluated all existing articulation and newly submitted courses for UCSD's lower division History courses. All reviews have been acted on and the community colleges have been notified of decisions.