Financial aid regulations assume that the family has primary responsibility for meeting the educational cost of students. If you are considered a dependent student according to the financial aid definition, your aid eligibility is determined by using parent income and asset information in addition to your information. Dependent students are therefore required by law to provide parental information and signatures to be considered for financial aid.

Occasionally a student may not be able to obtain parental information due to homelessness or being at risk of homelessness. (Examples include leave home due to physically abusive parental relationships, former wards of the court or evicted from your dwelling place with no secure living arrangements, or having insufficient resources to pay living and housing expenses in San Diego)

The following situations are NOT considered exceptional circumstances: Your parents did not claim you as an exemption; you supported yourself; you disagree with the living arrangements secured by your parent(s), you or your parents are unwilling to pay for educational expenses; them; it is difficult to acquire their information. Unfortunately, petitions citing these circumstances cannot be taken into consideration.

If you do have exceptional circumstances, please describe these in detail and attach all documents that support your circumstances. In your petition, you should supply detailed information for each of the following:

PLEASE SUBMIT EACH OF THE FOLLOWING IN YOUR DETAILED STATEMENT (PLEASE CHECK EACH SUBMITTED)

On a separate piece of paper, in paragraph format, please answer all of the following questions:

- Identify the full name(s) and location of your parent(s). Include information on both parent 1 and parent 2 regardless of marital status or gender.
- Describe the last time you lived with and/or had contact with your parent(s). Include the date, location, and nature of the contact.
- Explain the circumstances for your housing insecurity. (Please be clear and specific.)
- Describe in detail (with dates) how you have been self-supporting by answering the following question:
 - i) How have you provided for yourself?

IN ADDITION, PLEASE PROVIDE THE FOLLOWING (PLEASE CHECK EACH SUBMITTED)
